Who we may share the data that we collect with

Who we may share it with	Our reasons	Our lawful basis
Employees and contractors of other companies within our group	We share your personal data with those most relevant to the role that you have applied for, or are seeking, to enable them to be involved in the potential recruitment process. This may involve the transfer of your personal data to other territories and outside the country you are resident or located in.	Legitimate interests
Recruitment agencies	Where you have applied through a Recruitment Agency, we may share details of your application, its merits and success or failure with them (together with opinions such as our reasoning for any decisions taken).	Legitimate interests
Third parties	If you have provided us with information about a referee, or have made claims in respect of certain qualifications, we may disclose the existence and nature of your application (and its status) to those third parties in order to obtain a reference or validate your qualification.	Legitimate interests
Those involved in interviewing	Sometimes we may use third parties in our interview process, where this is the case for the role or application you have made, you will be made aware of it prior to the interview and we may share details of your application with that third party for the purpose of the interview.	Legitimate interests
Recruitive software	We store information about applicants on our third party SaaS platform currently provided by Recrutive Limited. More information on them is available on request.	Legitimate interests
Law enforcement	We reserve the right to disclose information in order to comply with national, EU or Member State law to which we are subject, including to meet national security and law enforcement requirements. You can find out more on our approach here .	Legitimate interests
Future purchaser of all or part of our Group or assets	We reserve the right to transfer our obligations, rights and permissions in your information to any organisation to which we may transfer our business or assets (including if we, or a relevant part of us or our assets, are proposed to be purchased or acquired by a third party).	Legitimate interests

If you provide us with information about others

If you provide information and personal details about others (such as a referee), you confirm that they are happy for you to do so and for us to contact them at the appropriate stage of your application.

Who we may share your information with, and sending information outside the country you are located in

To operate our group effectively we use shared systems, resources and sub-processors and so the information that we collect may be transferred, shared and processed within our group and to and by these third-parties. They are only authorised to use your personal information as necessary to provide the services to us that we request from them and must abide by data privacy and security obligations set out in applicable law.

Record maintenance: We use a third party – Recruitive Limited, to provide a platform through which we are able to easily manage and track applications to work within our group. More information about it can be found at <https://www.recruitive.com/privacy-policy/>.

Group companies: If you apply for a role within a group company located outside of the territory that you are currently resident in, you acknowledge that it may be necessary for us to share your personal data with those members of our group (and other third parties as set out above in who we can disclose your data to). These individuals may be located outside the country you're resident in.

Selling your information: We will not, and do not, sell or rent your information to third-parties for: (i) valuable consideration (as defined in the California Consumer Privacy Act) or for their direct marketing purposes; or (ii) monetary consideration for the person to license or sell it to additional persons (as defined in Nevada Senate Bill 220). Your information may be shared with third parties as set out above for our business purposes.

What we need you to do

We need to make sure that the information that we hold about you is accurate, up-to-date and still relevant. As a result, we need you to tell us promptly if there are any changes to the information that you've provided by letting us know at careers@egress.com.

How long we will keep your information for

We will keep information that you provide to us as a result of an application (by whatever route or means) for a period of 12 months (unless you have a current job application in process with us). If you are successful in your application, when you become an employee or contractor of our group, your personal data will be held in accordance with our Employment Privacy Policy – details of which will be made available to you at the appropriate time.

Your rights as an individual

As an individual you may have certain rights by law in respect of the personal data that we hold about you. These rights may not always apply as your location and the basis on which we are processing your personal data may affect their availability. You can find out more information about them and our Data Protection Officer at <http://www.egress.com/legal/your-rights>.

If you ever have a complaint relating to the delivery of our services, or our processing of your personal information, you can find details on how to raise this in our Complaints Policy at www.egress.com/legal.

Privacy Shield

Our policy is to respect and protect personal data collected or maintained by or on behalf of Egress Software Technologies. In furtherance of our commitment to this Privacy Policy, Egress Software Technologies, Inc. has certified to adhere to the Privacy Principles set forth in the EU-US Privacy Shield Framework and the Swiss-US Privacy Shield Framework regarding personal data related to employees, contractors and candidates of Egress Software Technologies resident in the European Economic Area (EEA) and Switzerland, respectively, and processed in support of the Egress Software Technologies Group's human resources operations. Egress Software Technologies, Inc. adheres to the Privacy Shield principles. With respect to personal data received or transferred pursuant to Privacy Shield, Egress Software Technologies, Inc. is subject to the regulatory enforcement powers of the U.S. Department of Commerce. Egress Software Technologies, Inc's commitment to participate in the Privacy Shield program can be found at the following DOC website located at <https://www.privacyshield.gov> that officially lists all U.S. entities that have registered for the program. Egress Software Technologies, Inc. has further committed to cooperate with EU data protection authorities (DPAs) for EEA residents and with the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner for Swiss residents with regard to unresolved Privacy Shield complaints concerning human resources data transferred from the EU or Switzerland, respectively, in the context of the employment or engagement, or potential employment or engagement, relationship.

International Privacy Verification

Whilst the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) and the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC) ruled the EU-U.S. and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Frameworks invalid in the summer of 2020, we remain committed to the Privacy Shield Principles. In recognition of our continued commitment, in October 2020 we self-certified with the International Privacy Verification programme \(IPV\). The IPV's assessment criteria are aligned with those of the Privacy Shield and therefore by certifying with the IPV we are able to continue to demonstrate our compliance with the core Privacy Shield Principles in relation to the protection of personal data transferred outside of the UK and EU.

If you do not feel that we have resolved your complaint or concern satisfactorily you can contact our U.S based third-party dispute provider (free or charge) at <https://feedback-form.truste.com/watchdog/request>.

Changes to this policy

We can change this policy from time to time. You (and, if you are a business, your users) should check the website periodically to make sure that you, or they, have read our most recent policy. When we do make changes, we will change the date at the top of this document.
