Who we may share your information with and sending information outside the country you are located in

To operate our group effectively we use shared systems, resources and sub-processors and so the information that we collect may be transferred, shared and processed within our group and to and by these third-parties. This may involve the storage, transfer and processing of this information outside the UK, the EEA, the United States or the country where you are located. Where this happens, we will ensure that any such transfer or processing is subject to appropriate legal and technical safeguards.

Any third party sub-processors are only authorised to use your personal information as necessary to provide the services to us that we request from them and must abide by data privacy and security obligations set out in applicable law.

Electronic registration: Where we use an electronic visitor system, we use a third party – Teem Technologies, Inc.. Teem, Inc. is based in the United States and more information about it can be found at <https://www.teem.com/privacy/> and at www.egress.com/legal/subcontractors.

CCTV: Where we use an in-house CCTV system, we use a third party, Nest Labs, Inc.. Nest is based in the United States and more information about it can be found at <https://nest.com/uk/legal/privacy-policy-for-nest-web-sites/>.

Health authorities: to the extent required by relevant laws or regulations, we may share limited personal contact information with relevant health authorities or other bodies involved in track, test and trace activity to enable them to contact you through such programmes in the event of any incident at our premises or involving our personnel that you may have come into contact with.

Transfer of rights: We reserve the right to transfer our obligations, rights and permissions in the data that you provide or that we collect to any organisation to which we may transfer our business or assets (including if we, or a relevant part of us or our assets, are proposed to be purchased or acquired by a third party).

Selling your information: We will not, and do not, sell or rent your information to third-parties for: (i) valuable consideration (as defined in the California Consumer Privacy Act) or for their direct marketing purposes; or (ii) monetary consideration for the person to license or sell it to additional persons (as defined in Nevada Senate Bill 220). Your information may be shared with third parties as set out above for our business purposes.

Applicable law: We reserve the right to disclose the data that you provide or that we collect in order to comply with national, EU or Member State law to which we're subject, including to meet any national security and law enforcement requirements. You can find out more on our approach here.

How long we will keep your information for

Type of Data	How long we will retain it
Electronic personal contact information	Digital records using Teem are kept for 12 months.
CCTV	CCTV images are kept for a limited period of time but may be kept for longer for the investigation of an incident, retention of evidence or when competent authorities request us to retain them.

Your rights as an individual

As an individual you may have certain rights by law in respect of the personal data that we hold about you. These rights may not always apply as your location and the basis on which we are processing your personal data may affect their availability. You can find out more information about them and our Data Protection Officer at <http://www.egress.com/legal/your-rights>.

If you ever have a complaint relating to the delivery of our services, or our processing of your personal information, you can find details on how to raise this in our Complaints Policy at www.egress.com/legal.

Privacy Shield

We participate in the EU-U.S. and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Frameworks and have self-certified to the U.S. Department of Commerce our adherence to the Privacy Shield Principles for all personal information received from countries in the European Economic Area, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom in reliance on the Privacy Shield. To learn more about Privacy Shield, visit the Privacy Shield website at www.privacyshield.gov/list.

Under Privacy Shield, we are responsible for the processing of personal information we receive and subsequently transfer to a third party acting for or on our behalf. We are liable for ensuring that the third parties we engage support our Privacy Shield commitments. The U.S. Federal Trade Commission has regulatory enforcement authority over our processing of personal information received or transferred pursuant to Privacy Shield. We commit to cooperate and comply with the advice of the regulatory authorities to whom you may raise a concern about our processing of personal information about you pursuant to Privacy Shield, including to the panel established by the EU authorities and the Swiss FDPIC. This is provided at no cost to you.

If you do not feel that we've resolved your complaint or concern satisfactorily you can contact our U.S. based third-party dispute provider (free or charge) at <https://feedback-form.truste.com/watchdog/request>. Under certain conditions, more fully described on the Privacy Shield website, you may invoke binding arbitration when other dispute resolution procedures have been exhausted.

International Privacy Verification

Whilst the Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) and the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC) ruled the EU-U.S. and Swiss-U.S. Privacy Shield Frameworks invalid in the summer of 2020, we remain committed to the Privacy Shield Principles. In recognition of our continued commitment, in October 2020 we self-certified with the International Privacy Verification programme \(IPV\). The IPV's assessment criteria are aligned with those of the Privacy Shield and therefore by certifying with the IPV we are able to continue to demonstrate our compliance with the core Privacy Shield Principles in relation to the protection of personal data transferred outside of the UK and EU.

If you do not feel that we have resolved your complaint or concern satisfactorily you can contact our U.S based third-party dispute provider (free or charge) at <https://feedback-form.truste.com/watchdog/request>.

Changes to this policy

We can change this policy from time to time. You (and, if you are a business, your users) should check the website periodically to make sure that you, or they, have read our most recent policy. When we do make changes, we will change the date at the top of this document.

Glossary

Legitimate Interest means our interest in conducting and managing our business to enable us to give you the best service and experience. We make sure we consider and balance any potential impact on you (both positive and negative) and your rights before we process your personal data for our legitimate interests. We do not use your personal data for activities where our interests are overridden by the impact on you (unless we have your consent or are otherwise required or permitted to by law).

Vital interests of the data subject means that the processing is necessary in order to protect your interests, or those of another natural person (e.g. track, test and trace information)
